Q What does it cost to visit Bhutan?

A The Royal Government of Bhutan sets the International Tourist Tariff, which is valid for all-inclusive packages. The rates are the same for cultural tours, treks or any other special interest package. For groups of 3 persons or more, the rates are as follows: High season tariff: USD $250 per person per night for the months of March, April, May, September, October, and November.

Low Season Tariff: USD $200 per person per night for the months of January, February, June, July, August, and December.

Q When is the best time to travel to Bhutan?

A Bhutan is an all season destination. Spring and summer fill the landscape with myriad flora and fauna. Autumn casts a bright golden glow on the landscape. The crisp winter air and the clear skies make it ideal for capturing some of the best mountain views.

Visitors tend to stay away during the monsoon months of June, July and August when the weather is sometimes a little wet and humid for sightseeing.
